THE TOP TWENTY

Centenary was ranked in the nation's major college Top Twenty by the Associated Press 14 times during the 1973-74, 1974-75 and 1975-76 seasons. That included 11 weeks during the 1975-76 season when the Gents finished with a final ranking of number 19.

1991-92 in Review

Centenary Head Coach Tommy Vardeman knew he had his work cut out for him heading into the 1991-92 season. After all, Centenary was without the services of point guard Patrick Greer (1991 TAAC Player of the Year), forward John Buckwalter (1991 CoSIDA GTE Academic All-American), and three other seniors that helped the team come out of nowhere to finish 17-12 overall and second place in the Trans America Athletic Conference in 1990-91.

The team also took a blow before the first game when sophomore guard Jamar Comeaux went down with a severe ankle injury that forced the team's third-leading returner in scoring to miss the season.

Add that to only one starter returning (sophomore forward Nate Taylor) and a schedule consisting of Iowa, Houston, TCU, San Diego, and Louisiana Tech, and it's easy to see why the Gents finished a disappointing 10-18 overall and in seventh place in the TAAC.

Centenary started out the season with a hard fought 105-103 win over Grambling in the first round of the Century Cellnet Classic in the Gold Dome, as junior guard Shannon Washington pumped in a career high 24 points and junior college transfer Tyrone Warren snared 12 rebounds. But the next night, Centenary dropped a 74-72 decision to eventual NIT bound TCU in the championship of the tournament.

The Gents then won two straight to improve to 3-1, thanks to a couple of 20 point scoring nights from Taylor in a 106-68 win over Wiley College and a 100-88 win over Ouachita Baptist at the Dome.

From there, Centenary hit the road for the first time when they traveled to the Pizza Hut Classic, hosted by Southwest Missouri State.

In the first round, Louis Lumpkins poured in a career high 28 points and snared 8 rebounds, but it wasn't enough as San Diego sent the Gents into the consolation game with a convincing 108-92 win.

The next night, Centenary had something to prove when they met Morgan State in the consolation game. The Gents had a season high 8 dunks in the contest and jumped out to a 68-38 halftime lead. When the dust settled, Washington (19 points) led a pack of 7 Gents who scored in double figures, and Centenary took a 124-91 win to improve to 4-2 on the year.

It was the last time the Gents would be two games over .500 in the season, as Centenary lost six straight games to fall to 4-8. In that span, the Gents gave up 100 or more points in losses to Louisiana Tech, Grambling, Iowa, Houston, and Northwestern State, and dropped a 20 point decision in the TAAC opener at Southeastern Louisiana.

The youthfulness of the Gents was evident in the six losses. At Grambling, Centenary led the Tigers by as many as 16 points and had a 10 point lead midway through the second half, only to see it evaporate in the 110-107 overtime loss. Against Houston, the Gents trailed by only 8 at the half, but were outscored 53 to 37 in the second half to fall 105-81. The Gents also led Northwestern State midway through the first half, but the Demons poured it on in the second stanza to take a 112-77 win in the Dome. Lumpkins and freshman guard Trent Smith showed flashes of things to come in two lopsided losses at Louisiana Tech and Iowa. At Tech, Lumpkins had a team high 18 points and 7 rebounds to go with Smith's 11 point effort in a 111-89 loss. At Iowa, Smith hit five 3-pointers and had a game-high 21 points, while Lumpkins made his presence felt with a down-the-lane, one handed jam over Hawkeye center Acie Earl in a 121-76 loss.

After opening conference play with a 90-70 loss at Southeastern Louisiana, Centenary returned home and took out their frustrations on East Texas Baptist, setting a season-high in scoring in their 128-89 win that broke a month-long losing streak. Smith led the way with a career high 28 points, including a school record nine 3-pointers on the night.

Centenary then dropped to 5-10 overall and 0-3 in the TAAC when they suffered a pair of road losses at Georgia Southern and Mercer.

About the only bright spot on the road trip was the emergence of Taylor, who poured in a career-high 33 points against eventual TAAC champ GSU.

Taylor led the Gents to their first TAAC win of the year when they returned to the Dome. He scored 16 points and grabbed a career-high 17 rebounds while Derrick Jacobs came off the bench to score 10 points in the final 10 minutes to spark Centenary to a 69-64 win over Stetson.

After dropping three straight to Florida International, Louisiana Tech, and Samford, the Gents were 6-13 overall and 1-5 in the TAAC. But, Centenary didn't throw in the towel just yet.

Taylor hit a 15 foot jumper with two seconds remaining to give the Gents a 82-81 win at Georgia State spoiling the Panthers' homecoming. After dropping a 82-72 decision to SLU, the Gents reeled off two straight wins over eventual TAAC champ Georgia Southern and Mercer.

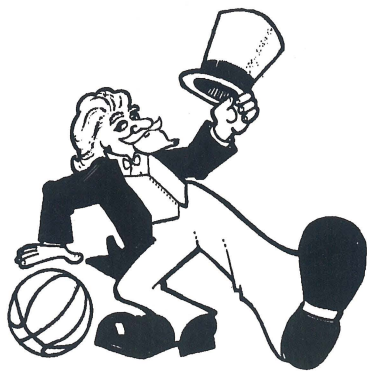

Against Southern, Centenary scored one of their biggest comeback wins ever as Taylor scored 26 points and grabbed 9 rebounds in a 110-106 overtime win that handed the Eagles their only TAAC loss of the season. Centenary trailed GSU 40-15 midway through the first half but managed to cut the deficit to 13 at the half. The Gents then outscored GSU 51-38 in the second half and 14-10 in the overtime period in which Taylor scored what proved to be the game-winner with 27 seconds remaining.

Against Mercer, Centenary trailed by 14 in the first half, but Taylor capped off his 21 point, 9 rebound night with the game-winning bucket with 22 seconds left in a 77-75 win.

Even though the Gents lost three of their next four to end the regular season, Centenary finished just two wins out of 3rd place in the TAAC, but had to settle for 7th place and a return trip to Georgia State in the first round of the TAAC tourney. Taylor's 25 point, 17 board effort wasn't enough this time as the Panthers ended Centenary's season with an 84-69 win.

ARY GENTLEMEN

What a difference a year makes!!! A year ago "young and inexperienced" was all you heard about the Gents as they struggled through an up and mostly down season. Just 12 months later "experienced" is how you describe the 1992-93 edition of Gent Basketball.

A year ago only one starter returned ... this year four are back. The last time the Gents had four starters back was in 1989-90, the year Centenary won the Trans America Athletic Conference Championship. A year ago only one senior returned ... this year four are back. A year ago only one of the top four scorers returned ... this year all four top scorers are back.

Faced with facts like that it's easy to see why the mood is upbeat in Head Coach Tommy Vardeman's office. "The best thing about all those young kids we had last season, was they got older and learned to play ... now they're back," explains Vardeman. "At times we had only Sophomores and Freshmen on the court, we got drummed a few times but you could see progress in each game. We became a considerably better team each time we stepped on the court to practice and play."

Ten veterans return from last season's 10-18 team, including four starters, the top four scorers and the top two rebounders, making the Gent coaching staff excited about the prospects of the upcoming season. The ten returning players gained a great deal of experience with extensive playing time; players saw action in all 28 games, two others in all but two games and 7 of the 10 started in at least one-third of the games.

The 1991-92 Gents had some high points despite the 10-18 record. They were the only team in the TAAC to defeat conference champion Georgia Southern (110-106, OT), spoiling Southern's bid for a perfect league season. Not only did the Gents beat Georgia Southern, they beat TAAC runner-up Georgia State on the road 82-81 on a Nate Taylor last second jumper. The Gent scoring output was 84.7 PPG, good enough for 19th in the nation. Averaging 41.6 rebounds per game, the Gents led the TAAC in rebounding. Don't forget all these accomplishments were done by players that return to this year's squad.

1992-93 Outlook

'Experience' Should Key Gent Rise In TAAC

(Jr, Longview, TX, 15.8 ppg) and a trio of support players in Shannon Washington (Sr, Saline, LA, 13.5 ppg), Louis Lumpkins, (Sr, New Orleans, LA, 10.1 ppg) and Trent Smith (So, Atlanta, LA, 9.9 ppg). The quartet finished 1991-92 as the top four scorers.

Taylor, a 6-7, forward, established himself as one of the finest players in the TAAC, tallying a team leading 15.8 points a game (8th in the TAAC) and 9.3 rebounds a contest (2nd in the TAAC). As a Second Team All-TAAC selection, Taylor was the only Sophomore selected for postseason conference honors. In '92-93 preseason balloting by conference coaches Taylor was the only underclassman selected on the TAAC's preseason First Team. A consistent player at both ends of the court Taylor scored in double-figures in all but 4 games last season. For the Gents to be successful Taylor will have to exploit his talents and take the lead as the "go to" guy. Taylor finished at or near the top in every statistical category on the Gent squad last season, illustrating his importance as a returner.

Taylor will not be alone when it comes to carrying the scoring load during the upcoming season. Back for his fourth and final year in Maroon and White is 5-10, guard Shannon Washington. Washington, the second leading scorer last season (13.5 ppg), will have to continue his outside scoring threat to take pressure of Taylor's inside game. Washington split time last season as the Gents off-guard and point guard, serving as the Gents most consistent player at either position. The only four-year player on this year's squad, Washington proved to be an iron man last season averaging just over 30 minutes of play ... tops on the team. One of the TAAC's finest free throw shooters (78.9% last season, #2 in the TAAC), Shannon's experience will be relied upon heavily if the Gents are to work their way back atop the TAAC.

Louis Lumpkins and Trent Smith round out the returning starters from a year ago. The burly Lumpkins (6-7, 205) started in all but five games averaging 10.1 PPG and 4.7 RPG, third among returners in both categories. The southpaw provided the enthusiastic lift to last year's squad with his monster jams and hard-nosed aggressive style of play. Expect to see Lumpkins spending most of his time at the power forward slot or running the high post where his soft touch on the jumper is so effective.

Trent Smith is the Gents top outside shooting threat, connecting on 38.2% (81 of 207) of his 3-point shots last season. The long bomber got his first start the tenth game of the season against Houston and became a permanent fixture in the lineup. Against East Texas Baptist, Smith set a Gold Dome and Centenary record by connecting on nine 3-point field goals in the game.

Tyrone Warren (Sr, Queen, NY, 7.9 ppg, 6.1 rpg) and Stacy Lawson (Sr, Longview, TX, 5.2 ppg, 3 apg) both return as part-time starters a year ago. The JuCo products started several games early in the season and were relied on heavily down the stretch as the key players off the bench. Warren adds fearless tenacity under the boards (6.1 RPG, 2nd in rebounding in '91-'92). Lawson's penetration skills afford the Gents depth at the point position where they are in most need of improvement.

The biggest question that stands for the Centenary coaching staff as they enter the upcoming campaign is at the center position. Allan Jaster (Jr, Madisonville, TX, 6-10, 225, 4.4 ppg, 3.7 rpg) and Andrew Knight (Jr, Groves, TX, 6-9, 235, 1.8 ppg, 1.3 rpg) were listed as the only true centers on the pre-season depth charts. Jaster, who many expected to step in as a starter two years ago as a Freshman has yet to develop into his full potential, while Knight's speed is suspect in the Gents full court game. Off-season drills have improved Jaster's skill and size tremendously which should help the junior blossom at the post.

"Those two kids (Jaster and Knight) will have to pick up the pace for us this coming year," explains Tommy Vardeman. "They both have the skills to play, it's just a question of doing it day in and day out. For us to be successful one of them is going to have to do the job and play a lot of minutes. To take some of the pressure of the center spot we will probably run some high-low stuff and utilize our forward scoring."

Nate Taylor

Also returning from last season are guards Derrick Jacobs (Jr, Little Rock, AR, 6-0, 150, 4.5 ppg) and Ondrell Moore (So, Benton, LA, 5-10, 145, 2.1 ppg). Jacobs, a walk-on two years ago, played nearly 15 minutes a game last season in all 28 games. Jacobs came on strong at the conclusion of last season scoring in double figures 3 of the last 4 games including a career high 13 against Samford. Moore, a walk-on last season, was used sparingly but can always be considered a 3-point threat upon entering a game.

Although back for his second season as a Gent, Jamar Comeaux, (So-RS, Moss-ville, LA, 6-6, 190) hasn't seen action since 1990-91. Comeaux suffered a severe ankle strain in a intrasquad scrimmage and elected to sit out the entire season when the ankle did not respond to therapy.

Comeaux averaged 4.7 PPG as a Freshman and could very well be in the starting lineup at the start of the season. The rangy Comeaux could be the team leader the Gent coaching staff searched so hard for last season. Additionally, Comeaux provides depth for the Gents at the off-guard and small forward spots. Comeaux's style and flair remind many of the former Gent star Larry Robinson.

Four newcomers fill out the 1992-93 Centenary roster. A trio of freshmen guards will be expected to add depth to a position that was suspect and inconsistent last season. Anthony Stephens heads the short list of newcomers which includes classmates Aljay Foreman and Walter Camper

Shannon Washington

besides Junior College transfer Luc Bianchi.

Stephens, a product of Huntington H.S., in Shreveport, averaged 28 PPG as a senior prep star and may push the Gent upperclassmen for the starting role as point guard. Foreman, who averaged 18.9 PPG and 8.8 assists at Beaumont (TX) West Brook H.S. and Camper (18 ppg, Little Rock, (AR) McClellan H.S.) will provide Vardeman and his staff with added flexibility and depth unmatched in TAAC play. Bianchi sat out most of last year nursing a muscle pull at Eastern Arizona College. Bianchi averaged 6.1 PPG as a freshman and should help the Gents as a swingman.

A troublesome road schedule awaits the Gents in 1992-93. Beginning with a trip to Waco, TX for the Baylor hosted Dr. Pepper Classic where they will open with UNC Charlotte, followed by trips to TCU, Northwestern State, Auburn, Colorado, Grambling and six tough road conference games Centenary will have more than it's fair share of work away from home.

It should Dome-Sweet-Dome once again this season for the Gents as they host Central Florida, Wiley, East Texas Baptist, Dallas and Ouachita Baptist in the friendly confines, besides the six TAAC games and a return visit from Grambling. Considered a "home" contest but not to be played in the Dome, the Gents will host Louisiana Tech in Hirsch Coliseum at the Louisiana State Fairgrounds complex in Shreveport.

GENTLEMANIA

- ▼ Centenary has participated in five (5) Trans America Athletic Conference Basketball Championships in the TAAC's 13 year history. No other current TAAC school has been in more title games in conference history.
- ▼ Centenary won the TAAC Regular Season Basketball Championship in 1990. Centenary also won the 1980 TAAC Basketball Tournament in Monroe, Louisiana. Every Gent appearance in the Conference championship has been against the host team.

Cherokee Rhone has played professionally in Europe the last nine years and was twice been named "Player-of-the-Year" in the league.
- ▼ Centenary's overall athletic department is strong ... in 1988-89 Centenary became the first TAAC school to appear in three championship games in the same year (basketball, baseball, and soccer) the championship streak reached five.

Head Coach

TOMMY VARDEMAN

A graduate of Stephen F. Austin University (1965) and a native of Center, Texas the 50 year-old Vardeman has a wealth of experience and a knowledge of the game nearly unsurpassed in TAAC coaching ranks. His 26 years in the coaching business began at Cleveland (TX) High School followed by high school coaching stints at Crosby Channelview and Liberty-Eylau, all in the Texas prep ranks.

Vardeman moved on to the college ranks as a graduate assistant at Louisiana Tech where he completed his Master's Degree in Education in 1970. Following his graduate assistant stay at Tech, Vardeman moved on to coaching stints at Missouri Baptist Junior College and Henderson State (AR), before returning to Louisiana Tech as the head assistant for four years.

Following a one year hiatus from coaching to enter private business, Vardeman got the call from Centenary to move to Shreveport and assist the Gent Basketball program. While Vardeman has been an assistant or head coach at Centenary the Gents have won the TAAC regular season championship and the tournament championship besides finishing the regular season runners-up once and tournament runners-up four times.

"We have built a consistent program at Centenary," adds Vardeman. "We have had our ups and downs but overall we have a very successful program that we can be proud of." One thing that makes Vardeman most proud is his players success in the classroom. The Gents were recently recognized by an NCAA published report as being one of only fourteen Division I schools with a 100% graduation rate for the 1983-84 and 1984-85 Freshman classes. In fact during Vardeman's tenure at Centenary 20 of 21 Freshmen that played for four years at Centenary have earned their degree.

Known in coaching circles for his witty repartee and fierce competitiveness on the sidelines, Vardeman has instilled a break-neck style of play into his charges. The Gents have consistently been at the top of the TAAC in scoring each year he has been head coach, in fact the Gents finished his first season (1989-90) fifth in the nation in scoring at 95.9 PPG. Vardeman has also been fond of employing full-court man-to-man pressure just to pick up the pace of the game to score more.

"We like to go deep into our bench and throw as many fresh players at you as we can," comments Vardeman. "It's not as if we don't care about defense. We work on it the most. But the object of the game is to outscore your opponent, not only that but it's alot more fun to watch."

Vardeman and his wife, the former Sharon Crocker of Garland, Texas, have two daughters; Julie and Jennifer (who is married to Gent student assistant John Edwards). Both of Coach Vardeman's daughters are graduates of Centenary.

Entering his fourth season as head coach of Centenary College, Tommy Vardeman is anxious to wipe away the disappointing memories of the 1991-92 campaign and get back to the winning ways of his first two seasons as a head coach. During those two years at Centenary the Gents tallied a Trans America Athletic Conference (TAAC) Championship, a second place TAAC finish, a TAAC tournament runner-up finish, a 39-20 record (.661), two TAAC Player-of-the-Year honors (Larry Robinson and Patrick Greer) and two TAAC Coach-of-the-Year honors. It's easy to see why last season's 10-18, seventh place TAAC finish is something Vardeman and his staff want to get behind them.

"It surely was a tough season," explains "TV". "We didn't have alot of experience coming back last season (only one starter returned) and we had a ton of first year players (8 Freshmen and JuCo's). We were behind the curve from the get go, then Jamar (Comeaux) went down with the ankle injury compounding the problem. It was tough to swallow last year's record, but the kids played hard every time out, they gained a great deal of experience and we won a couple of big games down the stretch." In fact the Gents were the only TAAC team to defeat TAAC Champ Georgia Southern downing the Eagles 110-106 in overtime at the Gold Dome.

Vardeman first stepped on the Centenary campus the Fall of 1979 as an assistant coach for then head coach Tommy Canterbury. Ten years as an assistant/associate coach at Centenary helped him develop his own style and system which he put to use when Canterbury retired in 1989 and Vardeman was named head coach.

"Tommy Vardeman was a natural selection to follow Canterbury," says Centenary Director of Athletics Walt Stevens. "He knew the school, the TAAC, the program and we knew Tommy had his priorities placed in the proper order. He proved us right taking the team to heights that it has never been before."

Assistant Coaches

WILLIE JACKSON

Willie Jackson begins his fifth season as an Assistant on the Gent coaching staff. Prior to arriving on the Centenary campus Jackson spent 2 years as head coach at Caldwell Parish High School.

Gent faithfuls still remember "Jack", (arguably the finest player to sport a Gent uniform) racing up and down the court (1980-84), tossing in a school record 2535 career points (22 ppg average over 4 years) and grabbing 1,013 rebounds (2nd all time).

Jackson was drafted in the fourth round by the NBA's Houston Rockets, however he became the final guard released before the beginning of the 1984-85 NBA season. Jackson spent the next two years (84-85, 86-87) playing in the CBA.

During his years at Centenary, Willie became the only player in TAAC history to be named THREE time Player-of-the-Year and as a freshman was voted Newcomer-of-the-Year. The Sibley, Louisiana product tossed in 30 or better points in 21 games as a Gent as well as having led his high school team to 100 consecutive basketball wins.

Gent Head Coach Tommy Vardeman considers Jackson the finest player he has coached. "Willie had the ability and talent that you might get to coach once or twice in a lifetime ... HE COULD DO IT".

"Jack" is known for his easy manner yet ferocious intensity when he steps on the court, either as a player or a coach. Of Jackson as an assistant, Vardeman has this to say, "Jack has the unique ability to relate and communicate to every one of our players at any level ... he can motivate the kids during a drill, at a game or in a class ... he makes my job easy."

Willie is married to the former Zebber Satcher (a Centenary grad and former Lady hoopster), together they have one child Ashley, who's three-years-old.

In addition to his on-the-court duties, Jackson aids in recruiting and scouting. Jack also directs the Centenary Basketball Summer Camps for boys and girls.

STEVE ROCCAFORTE

Steve Roccaforte begins his fourth season as the Gent Assistant in charge of handling the recruiting process. Prior to arriving on the Centenary campus Steve spent 3 years as a Student Assistant at Lamar University before graduating in 1989.

The Port Arthur, Texas native directs the recruiting process for the basketball program. "Rock's" knack for the recruiting process is evident in the great recruits that have filled the maroon and white the last two seasons. During Steve's first year as an assistant, he coined the phrase "scoot and shoot" for the Gents all out aggressive style of play.

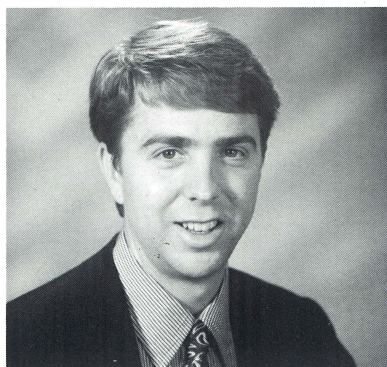

"Rock is a blood hound in the recruiting process," says Gent mentor Tommy Vardeman, "he finds the kids that will fit into our program and stays with them until they show up on campus. Steve's organizational skills and commitment to our program makes him an invaluable asset."

In addition to coordinating the recruiting process, "Rock" handles all the Centenary "Big Men" as well as the weight lifting and conditioning programs for the team.

Roccaforte, 27, is single.

A MOMENT OF GLORY.

There is no such thing as an easy victory.

Every win is the result of years of hard work, years of dedication. And the sweetest success is hardest won. At American Airlines, we've seen how far that kind of dedication can go. It's the force that drives our on-time flights. Our efficient baggage handling. Our meticulous maintenance service. And the force that keeps us setting the industry's highest standards. Flight after flight, year after year.

It means pushing ourselves a little farther every day. But no one said winning would be easy. The best just make it look that way.

Shreveport is located on the West bank of the Red River in Northwest Louisiana. The metropolitan area has a population in excess of 300,000 and forms the geographical, cultural and economic center of the region known as the Ark-La-Tex. Centenary is located two miles from downtown Shreveport and is widely known for its natural beauty and stately Georgian architecture.

President of Centenary College

Dr. Kenneth L. Schwab, an award-winning educator with a keen interest in leadership and strategic planning, was last year named Centenary College's 34th President. Dr. Kenneth L. Schwab takes the reigns of the 166-year-old Methodist college from Donald A. Webb, who announced his retirement in December of last year.

Dr. Schwab came to Centenary from the University of South Carolina where he was Executive Vice President for Administration and Associate Professor of Education in the Department of Educational Leadership and Policies. He has taught graduate courses in leadership in higher education and institutional planning and research, and is credited with the establishment of a strategic plan for the total University system.

Prior to that, Dr. Schwab served 16 years at Guilford College, a private college in Greensboro, N.C., where he worked as Dean of Students, Assistant Dean of Students, and Assistant to the President for Institutional Planning and Community Relations.

Dr. Schwab holds the Doctor of Education degree (1978) from Indiana University; Master of Education degree (1972) from the University of North Carolina-Greensboro; and the Bachelor of Science degree (1969) from Purdue University, where he graduated with honors as the 1969 Outstanding Senior.

He has done post-graduate studies at the Center for Creative Leadership in Greensboro, Johns Hopkins University, and Harvard University, and he was awarded an American Council on Education Fellowship in Academic Administration.

Dr. Schwab and his wife, Pat, who also has a doctorate degree in education, are the parents of three sons, Kempton, Carlton, and Christopher.

WALT STEVENS
Director of Athletics

Walter C. Stevens, Jr., in his twelfth year as Centenary College's athletic director, is the man responsible for coordinating activities and fund-raising for the athletic department.

A native of Macon, Ga., the retired Air Force Colonel of 30 years graduated from the United States Naval Academy in 1951. He later earned a master's at Louisiana Tech.

In his twelve-year service at Centenary, Stevens has been instrumental in the purchase of a new portable wooden floor for the Gold Dome, and completion of a six-court $180,000 tennis complex. He has also served as president of the Trans America Athletic Conference for two years (1986-87).

Under Stevens' direction, Centenary's athletic teams earned the first-ever Jesse C. Fletcher Award in 1983-84 and finished as runner-up in 1987-88, 1988-89 and 1989-90. The award distinguishes the TAAC school with the strongest athletic program during a year.

Stevens coached freshman basketball and baseball from 1957-60 at Georgia Tech and studied under the legendary Bobby Dodd, who coached there for 30 years.

He is married to the former Caroline Stillwell of Macon. They have two sons and three daughters.

TRANS AMERICA ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

Founded on September 19, 1978, by eight NCAA Division I Independents (Centenary, Hardin-Simmons, Houston Baptist, Mercer, Northeast Louisiana, Oklahoma City, Pan American and Samford), the TAAC has evolved over its 14-year history without changing its initial premise: "assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports.

One of the biggest changes in the TAAC came last year when the conference sponsored women's championships for the first time. The TAAC merged with the New South Women's Conference in the spring of 1991 and the TAAC doubled its size, sponsoring six women's championships along with six men's. The conference recently added three more championship sports for the 1993-94 season, women's soccer plus men's and women's track and field.

The ability of the TAAC to help its members reach its goals is reflected in the number of teams and individuals participating in NCAA tournament competition and the number honored on the All-Academic teams. In 1992-93, the TAAC placed automatic qualifiers into the men's basketball tournament and baseball tournament and added at large picks to the baseball and soccer tournaments and the National Women's Invitational Tournament in basketball. A record 238 student-athletes earned All-Academic status by earning a 3.0 or better during their season of athletic participation.

The success and continued growth of the soccer and women's basketball programs, including post-season play, victories over ranked opponents and national statistical champions, raises the hopes and chances of automatic qualifications into those NCAA events in the near future. Individual student-athletes also excel in the TAAC, as cross country runners, golfers and tennis players have earned tournament and meet titles, NCAA qualifications and GTE CoSIDA All-Academic honors.

TAAC 1992-93 membership includes nine member institutions. Changes in the membership are the addition of the University of Central Florida and the departure of Georgia Southern. Central Florida was a charter member of the New South and re-joins many of its conference rivals from that league by entering the TAAC.

OUR NICKNAME

The unique nickname "Gentlemen" was first established in the fall of 1922. With the majority of Centenary men also soldiers, the moniker "Gentlemen" was a proud, looked-up-to name and a logical choice. A tongue-in-cheek account that first mentioned the new nickname appeared in the 1923 Yoncopin (Centenary yearbook) in that season's football summary.

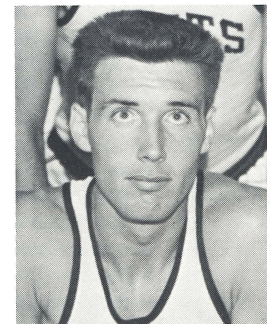

"... The boys were beginning to round into pretty good form by this time and as several recruits had been recently added we were beginning to resemble a real college football team.

"Yet there was some doubt on the eve of the first game. Reports from the Marshall camp had them recruiting from the boiler factories and we were made to believe that the Marshall team was coming to Shreveport to mop-up with the "Gentlemen" (You see we had just taken the name of the "Centenary Gentlemen" and far be it from us to start a dispute just at that time).

"Well, we put on our best manners but just couldn't help from running up a seventy-seven to nothing score..."
